

Versatile Design for the Outdoors

Vera's design is not just form—it's emotion made tangible, intuition shaped into beauty. It's the art of turning space into experience, objects into stories. A balance of precision, soul, and care. A simple design that expresses the personality of a chair with an elegant and timeless silhouette. This arm chair is the answer to every need for outdoor seating, providing an effective solution for decorating outdoor spaces, restaurant terraces, communities, or private residential areas. The versatile design makes it suitable for a wide range of uses, offering surprising lightness, and the kind of comfort that makes you stay "just five more minutes."
