

Adirondack Comfort Meets Durable Versatility.

This collection is crafted with the environment in mind. Made from High-Density Polyethylene (HDPE) which is created, in part, from recycled materials. Our durable HDPE product is specially designed to weather all four seasons so that it may remain outdoors year-round. Among other things, the Aaron boasts environmentally stable items which are also UV stabilized, it is waterproof, chemical resistant, free from volatile organic compounds, easy to clean, and features a high impact strength. All around, the Aaron is the perfect outdoor set for any environment.
